*Stand Out also has Projects many of which are productive in an "EL Civics" environment. – RED INDICATES 243 SUPPORT

Team projects allow students to work in groups and create a project unique to them. They are the ultimate application for a unit. Projects allow students to simulate using their language in the real world, and they create products that are about their own community which is the nature of EL Civics.

"Project-based learning puts students in the position to use authentic language to communicate and produce a product or solve a problem." (Fried-Booth, 1997)

"In teams students negotiate, plan and organize, practicing skills essential to living successful lives." (Stein, 1995)

TEAM PROJECTS

Students learn interpersonal skills (CCR).

Students do digital presentations (CCR).

TEAM PROJECT Create a healthy living plan

You are a team of doctors and health care professionals who have decided to make a healthy living plan to give patients when they leave the hospital.

1. COLLABORATE Form a team with four or five students. Choose a position for each member of your team.

Position	Job description	Student name
Student 1: Health Advisor	Check that everyone speaks English. Check that everyone participates.
Student 2: Writer	Write down information for the plan.
Student 3: Designer	Design plan layout and add artwork.
Students 4/5: Health Representatives	Help writer and designer with their work.

2. Make a list of all the information you want to include in your plan (healthy habits, fitness and nutrition advice, etc.).
3. Create the different sections of your plan, for example, a guide to reading nutritional labels, a guide to exercise, a list of doctors and their specializations, and a guide to common symptoms and diseases.
4. Add artwork to the plan, for example, maps of parks and gyms in your area or a drawing of the food pyramid.
5. Make a collage of all your information.
6. Share your healthy living plan with the class.

Some people in Okinawa, Japan, live healthy lives because they eat locally grown food and practice hara hachi bu: eat until you are 80% full.

Scaffolding (ELP 7) leads to team projects where students apply what they have learned and extend learning.

Students do research on the internet reading authentic texts.

Students use technology (ELP/CCR).

Critical Thinking is necessary for most all Stand Out activities and projects (CCRs)

TEAM PROJECTS

Students learn interpersonal skills / soft skills for employment (Civics).

Students do digital presentations (CCR).

TEAM PROJECT  Create a community brochure

Imagine that a new family has moved into your neighborhood and you want to tell them all about your community. With your team, create a brochure about your community.

1. COLLABORATE Form a team with four or five students. Choose a position for each member of your team.

Position	Job description	Student name
Student 1: Leader	Check that everyone speaks English. Check that everyone participates.
Student 2: Writer	Write information for brochure.
Student 3: Designer	Design brochure layout and add artwork.
Students 4/5: City Representatives	Help writer and designer with their work.

2. Make a list of everything you want to include in your brochure, for example: information about the library, banks, and other local services.

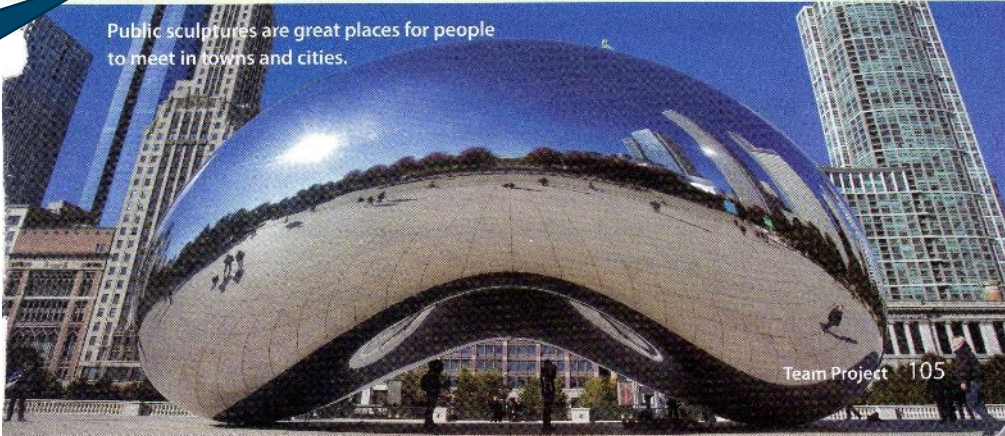

3. Create the text for your community brochure.

4. Create a map of your community.

5. Create artwork for your community brochure.

6. Present your brochure to the class.

Public sculptures are great places for people to meet in towns and cities.

TEAM PROJECT Make a schedule

With a team, you will design a weekly schedule that includes your class and study time. You will identify good study habits and time-management strategies.

1. COLLABORATE Form a team with four or five students. Choose a position for each member of your team.

Position	Job description	Student name
Student 1: Leader	Check that everyone speaks English and participates.
Student 2: Secretary	Take notes on study habits and time-management strategies.
Student 3: Designer	Design a weekly schedule.
Students 4/5: Assistants	Help the secretary and the designer with their work.

2. Design a weekly schedule. On your schedule, write in the days and times you have English class.
3. Decide on a goal that is related to learning English. Then, think of one obstacle to your goal and two solutions.
4. Make a list of good study habits and a list of time-management strategies you would like to use.
5. Make a poster with all of the information from above: weekly schedule, goal, obstacle, solutions, good study habits, and time-management strategies.
6. Present your poster to the class.

Scaffolding (ELP 7) leads to team projects where students apply what they have learned and extend learning.
